

Reviews

A number of leaders have written generous reviews and endorsements for FAITH LOVE HOPE Vietnam. Here is a sample of them.

This is such a great book. The unusual stories of extraordinary miracles and the move of God in Vietnam needed to be told. I am so glad that this Pastor put pen to paper to share these powerful stories. This is a first-hand account of revival in a nation that has been close to the writer's heart for 22 years, involving great servants of God that the world may never have heard of, but that are well known in heaven. In this faith-filled book, the reader will also learn of a people hungry for God in a way that is not often seen in the West. Get ready to be challenged and inspired!

A great book, inspiring and challenging.

As I read 'Faith, Love & Hope' it reminded me of Habakkuk 3:2, "I have heard of your fame, I stand in awe of your deeds.... Repeat them in our day, in our time make them known...."

I found the Holy Spirit breathing a prayer deep within me... "Lord Jesus move in me, our community and the nations".

This book is exceedingly inspiring and I believe this sincere & genuine account will breed faith, and ignite a passionate hunger for God to move in and through your life.

To the author I say, well done. Thank you for persevering and faithfully serving over many years and bringing us an account of God moving in Vietnam.

It has been my pleasure to have known AJ for well over 30 years. He is a sincere anointed man of God whose ministry has touched many people in numerous countries.

I was so blessed as I read the manuscript, I felt I was reading The Book of Acts Chapter 29, as I read of miracle after miracle the Lord performed through the ministry of His servant.

I highly recommend this book to you, I know you will be blessed and challenged firstly to spend time regularly interceding for the nation, to support this ministry financially, and even consider going on a Missions trip. I can guarantee you will never be the same again.

Pastor John E. Ollis M.Miss. - Australia

I have had the pleasure to meet AJ in Vietnam while working with our mutual friends in the House Church movement. His accounts of the Holy Spirit at work and the testimonies from believers are ones to which we too can bear witness. In fact I was delighted to read of one our shared experiences. The book speaks not only of AJ's personal love of God and all His works, but also his personal interest and love for the Vietnamese people. He has not been afraid to document the challenges, disappointments and frustrations associated with His ministry and indeed these help to show that we are just people after all! So I am happy to endorse the book helping, as it does, to dispel the notion that Vietnam is defined by a war rather than a people amongst whom the Lord has been, and continues to be, at work.

Foreword

By Dr. Ché Ahn

In “Faith, Love and Hope,” AJ shares an inspiring and extensive memoir detailing the powerful move of the Holy Spirit in Vietnam, that began in 1988 and has continued to grow as he and his wife have served in ministry to the nation over the last 22 years. His passion and commitment to see the transformation and building of the church in Vietnam is evident, as the testimonies of AJ and the other men and women who are leading the House Church Movement which make up “Faith, Love and Hope” truly embody what the Apostle Paul meant in his letter to the church in Thessalonica:

We remember before our God and Father your work produced by faith, your labor prompted by love, and your endurance inspired by hope in our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Thessalonians 1:3 (NIV)

“Faith, Love and Hope” is a rousing story of being cast forth into the harvest field, as a laborer of love, demonstrating what God can do with each of our lives when we embrace the adventure of knowing that while we may make our plans it is the Lord Who is determining our steps (Proverbs 16:9). You cannot read AJ's book and walk away without a passion to pray for those in the mission field, and stirred in hunger for the manifest presence of the Holy Spirit to lead and guide not only your ministry, but your life.

AJ is a consummate leader, minister and encourager of the body. Through sharing the breakthroughs, challenges, miracles and growth of the Vietnamese church we are invited into his testimony of Jesus in that nation, releasing the spirit of prophecy and encouragement for us to likewise experience revival in our day and age and encounter the power of the Holy Spirit to do what we could never do on our own (Revelation 19:10).

Receive an impartation as you read the pages of this book of the fiery love of God that will set you ablaze to impact your sphere of influence with the power and presence of God to see the lost saved, set free, and delivered to walk in purpose and destiny.
